

The Cost of High Living

Is not in dollars and cents alone, but in the breaking down of those vital functions of the body that bring happiness and long life. Neither the high cost of living nor the cost of high living need disturb the man or woman who knows.

Shredded Wheat

Two of these crisp, brown flakes of Shredded Whole Wheat served with hot milk make a warm, nourishing, satisfying meal and the total cost is not over five cents. It supplies all the human body needs to work on or play on and keeps the stomach sweet and clean and the bowels healthy and active.

Two Shredded Wheat flakes, soaked in the oven to restore crispness, served with hot milk or cream, make a complete, nourishing, satisfying meal at a total cost of five or six cents. Also delicious with fruit.

COUNTRY ON EVE OF TRADE BOOM

first place among the financial centers of the world is declared by able bankers to be something substantially more tangible than a dream. Money is plentiful and low rates obtain. Cotton has recovered in price from six cents in October to fully eight and one-half cents per pound today. Shipments to Europe exceed 4,000,000 bales or two-thirds of the corresponding total of a year ago.

The United States is today the chief granary of Europe. The prices received should insure for our farming population an unprecedented measure of prosperity and it has come to be an American axiom that when our farm products are in demand the whole country prospers.

The interstate commerce commission's decision in the eastern freight rate case has raised the drooping spirits of the railroads and has been tangibly reflected by increased orders for material. There is less clamor for indiscriminate governmental suits against corporations and they may reasonably hope that honestly conducted enterprises will henceforth be allowed to carry on their legitimate functions without fear of political or legal harassment.

Colorado May Be Stolen by Mexico! Plot Is Revealed

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 8.—Following a private hearing here today in the case of Alvaro Gutierrez, one of two men arrested by the United States officers on a charge of seditious conspiracy against the United States, federal officials said they were in possession of documentary evidence which they alleged revealed further details of a plot to seize the states of Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and the lower half of California for the formation of an independent republic. Ultimate annexation to Mexico was contemplated, it is said, the document declaring that Mexico had been robbed of this territory.

OFFICERS SILENT ON THE ASAMA INCIDENT

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 8.—Rear Admiral Howard and a number of his staff officers, who were on board the battleship San Diego and had been returned here today from their tour of duty in the Japanese fleet at Asama, were silent when asked for comment on the incident.

GERMANY WILL GIVE GREAT BRITAIN TASTE OF HER OWN MEDICINE

Naval Measures Designed to Protect Own Interests Against Enemy

BERLIN (via The Hague to London), Feb. 8.—The naval measures of Germany against British commerce are in no sense a blockade. No hostile action against neutral shipping is contemplated. German warships and submarines will endeavor by every means to their power to avoid sinking American or other neutral ships and will take every precaution to avoid a mistake.

The above may be taken as the correct interpretation placed upon the German proclamation in competent circles in Berlin. The proclamation declaring the waters around Great Britain to be a war zone, like similar British measures which were taken as a precedent, is designed, it is asserted, to warn neutrals that a ship venturing into the naval field of operations exposes itself in the same fashion as a civilian wandering on a land battlefield to the risk of being struck by a chance shot.

It was stated today that it might be safely asserted that the German navy has no intention of sinking an American ship unless she is carrying contraband of war, and then only if her crew can be given the possibility of escape. It was added, however, that war measures will be carried out against British trade with all possible severity in order to give England a taste of her own medicine.

The warning to neutral shipping, it was asserted, was considered as particularly needed in view of the reported order to British ships to hoist a neutral flag whenever they are in danger, an order which, it adhered to, was stated, would make it difficult for a German warship to discriminate between neutral and hostile shipping.

to take up an appropriation bill could be carried unless some progress were made on the pending measures within the next 48 hours.

Shortly before midnight, Senator Jones suggested the absence of a quorum. A roll call showed 50 senators on the floor, although but half a dozen had been present when it began. Senators came from the cloak rooms, rubbing the sleep from their eyes.

Senator Reed made the point of order that Senator Jones had lost the floor when he yielded to Senator Fletcher. Senator Ashurst in the chair overruled the point and on an appeal the roll call showed but 27 senators present. At midnight, another quorum call started and the sergeant-at-arms was instructed to seek absent senators.

HATCHET BURIED IN CANADA UNTIL THE WAR IS CONCLUDED

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 8.—That Canada is unanimously in favor of a political peace at home until the war in Europe is brought to a successful conclusion, was declared today in a declaration by Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier, and by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the opposition leader.

The first working day of parliament saw the debate on the address by the governor general commenced and concluded. The address of thanks for the governor general's speech was moved by William Weir, a German-Canadian, and was seconded by Hon. Achim, a French-Canadian Nationalist. It was supported by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who sent Canadian troops to Africa at the time of the Boer war and by Sir Robert Borden, who is now sending them to Europe.

For the opposition, Sir Wilfrid declared that there would be no attempt to obstruct the voting of all the funds the government required for the prosecution of the war, but that the Liberals would insist upon a statement of the details of the expenditure already made. Premier Borden promised full details.

The premier read a cable message from Lewis Harcourt, the British secretary of state for colonies, thanking Canada for the troops which have been sent to the Dominion and stating that the Princess Patricia regiment is now at the front where it will be joined shortly by the rest of the Canadian forces.

NEBRASKA QUARANTINES LIVESTOCK FROM EAST

BATTLE BEING FOUGHT FOR MEXICO CITY WATER PLANT

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 8.—A battle is being fought for the control of the water supply in which Mexican forces have defeated and driven back the United States troops. A loss of 100 killed and wounded was reported by the Mexicans. The constitutionalists have been placed at it.

ITALY CALLED 1913 AND 1914 CRIMES TO THE COLORS

ROME, Feb. 8.—A royal decree orders that the names of the persons who committed the crimes of 1913 and 1914 be placed in the colors of the Italian flag.

U. S. WILL ASK PROTECTION OF AMERICAN RIGHTS

at the state department today and to all inquiries as to the possible action of the United States government in connection with the prohibition of sea zones and the use of neutral flags aboard belligerent merchantmen. Secretary Bryan answered that these questions were "still under consideration."

While none of the neutral envoys proposed joint action with the American government, they sought information for the guidance of their own foreign offices. Chairman Wood and Representative Cline of the house foreign affairs committee also discussed the subject with Mr. Bryan, but declined to talk of their visit afterwards.

Raises Delicate Issue. It was apparent on all sides here that the German proclamation and the Lusitania incident had introduced a delicate situation touching more closely perhaps the position of neutrals than any other occurrence of the war.

Among naval officials it was pointed out that the threats of the German proclamation against enemy merchantmen found in the war zone, if carried out by submarines, would entail considerable danger to the submarines themselves, especially if they attempted to follow previously recognized rules of war in boarding a merchant ship and taking off its passengers before destroying the vessel. The appearance of a submarine, it was pointed out, would mean its instantaneous destruction by most of the big merchantmen, which carry small guns. There is no room aboard a submarine for passengers from a merchantman, and unless small boats are nearby the case of "imprudent necessity" too often advanced in international law, it was said by some naval officers, may develop an entirely new situation in connection with submarine warfare.

Would Limit Flag's Use.

The Lusitania incident evoked a speech in the house by Representative Martin of South Dakota, who announced that he favored legislation at this session to prohibit the use of the American colors on any but American vessels and to make it an offense for the master of any foreign vessel, whether belligerent or not, to fly the American flag over a ship. He said the penalty should be confiscation of the vessel and a fine for the commander in event the ship returned to American jurisdiction.

The state department issued today a denial of reports that Ambassador Duggan had telegraphed that the British government, "after having secured the owner of the cargo of the Wilhelmshafen, would seize all cargoes of foodstuffs destined to Germany without making compensation therefor." The department said this was an error, as the ambassador had not discussed the "matter of compensation for each cargo" as yet.

The general understanding in executive quarters is that the British government still intends to seize all cargoes of foodstuffs destined to Germany, though whether there will be compensation is not known.

Naval Proceedings.

Naval officers recalled that the navy regulations permit a warship to fly another flag than its own, but specifically provide it must be hoisted down and the ship's own flag must be hoisted before a shot is fired. There are many incidents in naval history where that has been done, the latest being the German sea rover Emden, which hoisted the Japanese flag just before making a daring raid at Penang.

It was recalled in naval circles here today that when Captain Glasco, commanding the cruiser Charleston, on his way to the Philippines with a convoy of troops, stopped and captured Guam, he ordered the Japanese flag to be flown on his flagship and ships of his flotilla. He signaled this message to the steamers Australia, Peking and Sydney, merchant ships, under charter to the government and in use as troop ships.

Passing signal station at Guam, Charleston, will hoist Japanese colors; other vessels none.

All the authorities of international law and the manual in use at the naval war college justify the use of other flags on warships. The navy war college manual says:

"The regulations of the United States navy state that the use of a foreign flag to deceive an enemy is permissible, but that it must be hoisted down before a gun is fired, and under no circumstances is an action to be commenced or a battle fought without the display of the national ensign."

The records of international law, however, contain a few instances in which the use of a foreign flag on a merchantman has come into question. One instance, though not in time of war, came up during the term of Secretary Sherman in the state department, in which the London board of trade intervened to stop improper display of a United States flag.

Sherman's Opinion.

These are Secretary Sherman's words: "A time of peace, existing between the United States and the United States, under the British flag has for some years past been used by the United States upon being at sea."

WHY IS A SALE?

THERE ARE no "sales" and "sales." There are the genuine, and the but we have neither these, nor patience to digress anything but the real thing!

A SALE, in which honest merchandise is sold, and where "sp. ad. patch" are unknown, a sale in which costs are disregarded, and in which the customer has the privilege from start to finish, a sale that isn't really a sale, but an inventory sale!

AND when you hear of a GREENBERG sale, you may rest assured that there is something doing at the bargain square. Why? Well, simply because we never run "sales" for any reason other than to dispose of the remaining stock.

FOR WHEN we conduct a sale, we do it up right! We lose money, perhaps, but then we reduce our stock to nothing and—MAKE NEW CUSTOMERS! Of course, such greatly reduced prices seem ridiculous, but those of you who are skeptical need only to come in and look around (that costs you nothing, you know) and you'll be convinced.

WE HAVE always had the reputation of handling the HIGHEST grade of clothing in the city (and we are clothing specialists—not merely clothing dealers), but some men have had the mistaken idea that ours are also the highest prices. This is decidedly wrong—WE DO NOT BELIEVE IN LONG PROFITS! Our motto is: "Make a fair profit, and let your customer have the benefit also."

YESTERDAY was quite a day in the history of clothing sales in this city; but today, we expect to break all records.

Well, who wouldn't take advantage of such as these? Think of it! ANY SUIT OR OVERCOAT IN THE HOUSE (EXCEPT BLACKS AND BLUES, WHICH ARE AT A REDUCED 25%) GOES AT ONE PRICE.

A SPECIAL lot of 33 and 34 sized Suits now $12.50 AS A SPECIAL inducement, we offer you any Tuxedo, $35, $40 and $45 values, one price, $20.

FIFTEEN STRIKERS ADMITTED TO BAIL

Hickey and Gross Released on $8,000 Bonds by Judge McHendrie

WALSHEBURG, Colo., Feb. 8.—Fifteen strikers, sympathizers and labor officials arrested on warrants issued upon indictments found by the Huerfano county grand jury, were admitted to bail today in sum of $8,000 and $10,000 by Judge Watson McHendrie at the opening of the February term of the district court today.

Incidental to fixing the bail, Judge McHendrie filed a scale for the incarceration of all men arrested on indictments in the hands of the sheriff. The bail of Eli Gross, William Hickey and Charles Hemen was $8,000 each. John Burke, Phileas Marquis, J. Curtis, Jeff Graham, Tom Wilson, Joseph Hule, C. M. Hulse, Leonard Collins, William Watson, Arthur Wood, Tom Westbrook and George Conder was fixed at $10,000 each.

Neither the exact charges nor the names of the men held on indictments was mentioned in court. The special grand jury concluded its work tonight by filing its final report upon its investigations of the violence growing out of the situation in the southern field with Judge McHendrie. A large number of indictments charging simple assault are to be contained in the report which is secret. The report returned in June convicted 150 upon various charges.

LUSITANIA PASSENGERS GLAD TO SEE LIVERPOOL; FEARED GERMAN ATTACK

LONDON, Feb. 8 (Tuesday).—When the Cunard liner Lusitania started on her final dash from Ireland for Liverpool, the American flag flying, the lifeboats were stripped and manned ready for an emergency according to an unnamed American passenger quoted by the Daily Mail.

As for the American flag, he said it was flying Friday morning when we came up after breakfast. The lifeboats were stripped and manned by their crews who wore life preservers. There was considerable tension in the ship.

ST. PETERSBURG (via London), Feb. 8.—A Russian report given the Lusitania on her way to Liverpool, that she was carrying 100,000 lbs. of dynamite, was blocked by the German government.

FEDERAL JUDGES ARE TO BE DEPRIVED OF PARDONING POWER

Attorney General Gregory Gives Attorneys Instructions in Matter

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Attorney General Gregory has notified all United States district attorneys that in the future the department of justice does not intend to sit idly by and permit federal judges to suspend indefinitely either the imposition or execution of sentence on a convicted criminal.

In a circular letter to his assistants, Mr. Gregory, pointing out that the practice of indefinite suspension of sentence has long prevailed in many districts, says:

"No court has such a power. It is in effect a pardon of commutation. Nor many a court exercise it indirectly, by a continuance of the case from term to term for sentence or other similar device."

"This custom has been the cause of much complaint, and has tended somewhat to discredit the administration of the criminal law in the federal courts."

"In future you will protest against and object to any motions or requests for such suspension order, and report the making of the order to this department, that it may take the necessary steps to compel the issuance of commitment upon any such sentence."

"Because this involves an attack upon a practice heretofore tolerated proper courtesy to the judicial officer requires that he be advised in advance that the department finds it necessary in future to oppose these orders. You will kindly convey this information to each judge of your district and at the same time offer, should any judicial power, to furnish reference to decisions relating thereto, which reference the department, at your request, will furnish."

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dab on a sponge of soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking the strand a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two it becomes as beautiful as dark, glossy, and abundant.

GEN. VILLA BECAME PRESIDENT OF MEXICO WHEN UNABLE TO GET IN TOUCH WITH CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—General Villa's assumption of the presidency of Mexico was confirmed today by the state department today from George L. Carruthers, American agent with Villa, and by Enrique C. Lorente, representative here of General Villa.

Villa announced that his action had been temporary necessity, by reason of the temporary inability of the government to communicate freely with the northern states of the republic.

In connection with the recent demand by General Obregon upon the Spanish minister at Mexico for the delivery of Angel del Cazo, a Spaniard, accused of being a Villa agent, the government here made public tonight the following telegram from General Carruthers:

"It is false that any friction exists between the diplomatic corps and the first chief."

Eliseo Arredondo, head of the agency, said under impression had been given the Del Cazo incident and that there was no likelihood of it developing any misunderstanding between Carruthers and the diplomatic corps. The agency also gave out the following telegram from Lorente:

"Reported here Monterey has been taken by Constitutional forces."

Details of the fighting. The fall of Monterey has been expected for some time, and the fact that it was taken today is a confirmation of the fact that the government here has been unable to get in touch with the capital.

Villa announced that his action had been temporary necessity, by reason of the temporary inability of the government to communicate freely with the northern states of the republic.

ENGLAND CALLS FOR MORE MEN

DETERMINED TO CRUSH GERMAN FOR

Greatest Military Budget in History of Europe Is Proposed

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The introduction of the largest military budget in the history of Great Britain, shared the stage in the house of commons today, with a discussion of the activities of the official press bureau.

The task of introducing the budget fell upon the parliamentary secretary of the war office, Mr. Tennant, as first lord of the house of commons.

Two more days have been allotted to the discussion of these "army estimates," which are called a "blank check budget," because the accounts of actual money which will be expended under them are represented by nominal or taken figures. Undersecretary Kenneth's speech was a strong one to the British army, and a plea for more recruits.

Need More Soldiers.

"It is true," he said, "that recruiting this far has been very satisfactory, but it varies from week to week, and possibly at the present moment, little more energy put into recruiting would not be out of place. There is no cause for discontent, but we want more men. Every man will be needed in this great life and death struggle. The variations and vicissitudes of this war may yet call for even greater sacrifices from the nation than have yet been made."

He appealed to the labor party to help organize the forces of labor so that when a man joined the colors his place would be adequately supplied.

The press bureau discussion was brought on by a motion by Joseph King, Liberal of North Somerset, "that the action of the press bureau in restricting the freedom of the press and withholding information about the war has been guided by no clear principles and has been calculated to cause suspicion and discontent."

Public Should Get Facts.

Mr. King urged that the press bureau issue a daily or a triweekly statement as to the progress, experiences, success and reverse of the British troops at the front. He added: "The press bureau ought to be used for freer dissemination of authentic information which would allay alarming and dangerous rumors."

In reply, Sir Stanley G. Buckmaster, director of the press bureau, defended its work. He declared that he had never withheld for five minutes any information that he possessed. Moreover, he had published instantly everything that it was in his power to publish.

"I am conscious of nothing," he said, "hotter calculated to give satisfaction to our enemies, who are endeavoring to discredit our official news, than the announcement that it has been suggested in the house of commons that the press bureau is the subject of suspicion."

Sir William P. Ryles, who seconded Mr. King's motion, asked if any disaster had been concealed, as there had been endless stories of a capital ship lost some months ago off the north coast of Ireland.

The speaker replied that that was an admiralty matter, which could not be discussed under the head of army estimates.

Means to Be Fair, He Says.

In his discussion of the press bureau, Mr. Buckmaster declared that the bureau was organized solely by the desire to supply fairly and impartially the public with news for its guidance by the different departments of state.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, declared that those who supported the motion desired only to point out certain things which needed altering.

If Mr. Buckmaster is not responsible, he said, "why is not a representative of the war office present to accept the responsibility? There is nothing worse for a country than concealment of disasters until the end of the war."

Harold Smith, Unionist, for Warrington, defended the bureau, declaring that the final decision as to what could be published rested with Earl Kitchener and Winston Spencer Churchill. Whereupon, a member inquired: "Has Lord Kitchener or Sir John French been asked for relaxation of the censorship?"

To this Mr. Buckmaster replied: "No."

Mr. King's amendment was negatived without division.

Pays Tribute to Soldiers.

Mr. Tennant paid a warm tribute to the territorial troops whose value and efficiency he declared had been proven by recent events. The British declaration of aeroplanes the secretary contended, has been found superior to that used by any other country. The speaker said also that as a result of the excellent sanitary services (entirely voluntary) that inoculation ought to be made compulsory.

Introducing the army estimates, Mr. Tennant said he was debarred from dwelling upon the size and the distribution of the British forces. "The enemy desires more than anything else to know the force we may have in the future," the speaker explained.

Mr. Tennant said that War Office estimates were not a secret, and that the possibility of issuing a medal at the end of the war for technical workers employed by armament firms etc., who were serving their country so faithfully.

10 ARE SENT TO PRISON FOR MILLION-DOLLAR BANKRUPTCY FRAUDS

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—Ten men were sentenced to penitentiary terms here tonight for participation in the so-called million-dollar bankruptcy swindle of the Great Western Jobbing house and a chain of department stores it operated. The case against Morris Garinkel, another defendant, was dismissed and a writ of habeas corpus granted for four of the defendants. Six others pleaded guilty. Those convicted said they would appeal. They are Samuel Bernstein, Jacob Lippman, Alfred Goldberger and Harry A. Cohen.

Judge John Pollock in the United States district court, sentenced seven men to serve a year and a day in the federal prison at Leavenworth and to pay fines of $5,000 each. They are Charles L. Greenfield, Lippman, Cohen, Sam Brown, Henry Steinhilber, M. Lichowitz and his brother, Jacob L. Lichowitz.

Goldberger and Bernstein were fined $5,000 and sentenced to one year in the county jail at St. Charles, Mo.

The two latter, Judge Pollock said, "evidently had criminal knowledge of the swindle," but there was no evidence of their participation.

Meyer Ruman, a brother-in-law of Brown, was given the lightest sentence, $1,000 fine and six months in jail. Evidence showed that he had gained little by the swindle.

Special Prosecutor Homer H. Hall had asked testimony from Greenfield, who was the government's witness.

The defendants all came from Philadelphia, but with headquarters in St. Louis. They operated in Kansas City, Louisville, Ky., Baltimore and other towns. According to the testimony, the parent and allied stores, by a system of cross references and false financial statements, obtained large credits. After secretly disposing of their merchandise for about 50 percent of cost, each store became bankrupt, leaving nothing for the creditors.

Turks in Position to Attack the British

BERLIN, via London, Feb. 8.—(Tuesday). The Tazehat today prints a dispatch from its Constantinople correspondent, who said he questioned the Turkish war ministry with regard to current reports that Turkish troops had crossed the Suez canal and captured (small or sunk) British ships.

"Up to the present," the correspondent says, "the only information is that the Turkish troops, thanks to their excellent preparations for the campaign, traversed the desert without difficulty or the loss of men or animals and now are in a position east of the canal, and that conflicts with the British troops have taken place east of the canal in the vicinity of El Kantara and opposite Ismailia."

MAYO BROTHERS FOUND MEDICAL RESEARCH BOARD

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 8.—A plan of Drs. William J. and Charles J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., to establish a $100,000 foundation for medical research and to place the foundation under certain restrictions, in the hands of the University of Minnesota board of regents, was approved by the university medical college advisory council late tonight.

It is proposed that the interest from the fund be used to research work at Rochester, open to graduate students, medical students, details have not been worked out.

10-YEAR TERM FOR CHINESE PRESIDENT FEATURE NEW LAW

PEKIN, Feb. 8. A 10-year term of office for the president of China, with eligibility to further terms, is the principal feature of the new election law passed by the provisional constitution conference. In a covering note published with the law the conference declares that China cannot be subjected to the dangers and alarms of frequent presidential elections.

Other features of the law are: That the president shall be a male citizen of the republic (therefore not necessarily a Chinese); at least 45 years of age; and that he shall have resided in China for a period of 25 years.

That at the time of the presidential election the president shall carefully and reverently nominate three persons from whom his successor must be chosen.

That the electoral college shall be composed of 50 members of each house, the Li Fu Yuan and the Tsan Cheng Yuan, the members being elected by ballot among themselves.

That the electoral college may vote for the reelection of the president as well as for the candidates he nominates.

That there shall be an attendance of three-fourths of the membership and a vote of two-thirds of those present in order to elect.

That "when the year of election arrives, should the members of the Tsan Cheng Yuan (the senate) consider it a political expediency the then president may be reelected for another term by a two-thirds majority of the Tsan Cheng Yuan without a formal election."

The Pekin Daily News says: "Frankly, the law is not republican, as the term is understood abroad, but it is Chinese. And the Chinese who legislate for China may be trusted to know what is best for the country during its transition stage. Whatever may be the (law's) defect it has to be conceded that it has been designed to meet the peculiar needs of China."

Aristocracy Cause of European War, Says Suffragette

DENVER, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, a suffragette leader of London, England, addressed a joint session of the Colorado legislature today on "World Peace." She declared ruling aristocracy, and not the masses, was responsible for the European war and said: "It must fall to the lot of the United States to be the chief instrumentality for restoring peace."

Mrs. Lawrence used a conference of neutral nations to consider the problem of peace, and suggested the conference submit to the warring nations three questions: "What are you fighting about and on what terms will you make peace?"

The speaker declared the masses of the European countries have very similar ideals and are confronted by similar problems. It was her opinion that a settlement of the war must be made by the masses and her hope that win of the strife would develop a United States of Europe.

Mrs. Lawrence paid a tribute to the American nation developed by a common people from every European country and standing out as a champion of world peace and declared, "God has not created it for naught."

The senate today passed an "unaltered" advertising bill to be substituted for the Thompson bill in the house. The latter containing many features which are objectionable to members of the senate.

The senate also passed a bill relating to the use of mattresses which have been used by venereal affections and contagious diseases, and provides for the destruction of such mattresses.

Nine-Tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

A famous physician whose successful recourses into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the stomach, were directly traceable to a diseased condition of the stomach, which, in turn, was due to the presence of an excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and even a chronic inflammation of the stomach lining.

He pointed out the danger of continuing the use of such stimulants as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that such a course would only aggravate the condition and lead to the most serious complications.

He emphasized the necessity of removing the cause of the trouble. He contended that it was foolish to treat the symptoms without attempting to treat the cause, and that it was foolish to treat the stomach with stimulants when the real trouble was in the stomach itself.

He said that the stomach is the foundation of the body and that if it is diseased, the whole body will suffer. He said that the stomach is the foundation of the body and that if it is diseased, the whole body will suffer.

"The Nations now at war are sowing hate and will reap thorns for their own impalement. Though Peace stops the fighting it will be a mockery. That is sure. Is it worth the price?"

This European war was born of the hatred sown by earlier warfare—it will engender other wars between the same nations in the future. The war yet unborn will carry this hatred in their blood to blaze into warfare when the spark is touched by Kings or Statesmen who are yet in infancy.

It's bad blood that makes your liver sluggish and the same bad blood causes your stomach muscles to lose their elasticity and become flabby and weak and thus cause indigestion.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics, is not a secret remedy for all its ingredients are printed on wrapper.

Take this temperance remedy as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter in the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys and drive it from the system through the natural channels. It will penetrate into the joints and muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will replace all the bad blood it drives out, with rich, pure blood full of vital force. It will furnish you with the kind of blood that puts the entire body in such perfect physical condition that brain or muscles know no fatigue.

It will clear the skin; eczema, pimples, rash, blotches will dry up and disappear. Boils, carbuncles and other evidences of tainted blood will pass away never to appear again.

Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery at any medicine dealer to-day, in either liquid or tablet form, as you prefer. It's the one great blood maker and purifier that all weak or run-down people ought to start to use at once. If you want good blood, good health and clear skin, get a supply to-day.—Adv.

What the Press Agents Say

Today at the Empress the second episode of "The Exploits of Elaine" entitled "The Twilight Sleep" with Paul White, Arthur H. Hays Sulzberger and The Clutching Hand, a master criminal in the leading roles, a short synopsis of the second episode follows: Elaine Dodge, and her lawyer, Perry Bennett, endeavor to solve her father's death. He was slain by "The Clutching Hand." Craig Kennedy, the scientific detective, was called in to solve the mystery, but his efforts have been in vain. While investigating a clue at Elaine's home, a letter tied to a stone crashes through a window. It is another warning from "The Clutching Hand." A search fails to reveal the intimidator. Kennedy leaves but promises Elaine not to give up the search.

That night a German scientist calls at the Hillside Sanatorium for Women, ostensibly to investigate the celebrated "Twilight Sleep," but in reality to pursue avial of the drug, Scopolonium, which produces the "Twilight Sleep." The peculiarity of the drug, is that while it does not render the patient insensible, it keeps her from recalling events following its application. The visitor, then takes his leave. The disappearance of the vial of Scopolonium puzzles the doctors.

Elaine Dodge, is drugged into unconsciousness by the masked figure of "The Clutching Hand" who has entered through her window. While administering the narcotic, a piece of glass, unwittingly broken, drops to the floor. "The Clutching Hand" produces the vial of Scopolonium, and injects the drug. Elaine is made conscious by a wet towel applied to her forehead, and gazes dazedly into the muzzle of a revolver. In abrupt terror of her sinister visitor, and obeying

CORONER TO PHASE-ODD FELLOWS HOME AFFAIR

YONKERS, N. Y., Feb. 8.—To the story that eight feeble inmates of the German Odd Fellows home here had been put to death because they were aged and required much attention was added today the suggestion that two other inmates might have been buried alive while under the influence of an anesthetic. It was believed that at least two of the bodies would be exhumed.

The coroner today began an investigation of this suggestion. There was little tangible for him to work on except reports founded in the fears of the present inmates with whom he held a long talk yesterday. The New York undertakers who took charge of the bodies were to be questioned as to what steps they had taken to make sure that life was extinct before burial.

Henry Blum, an embalmer, questioned today by the coroner, considered a statement imputed to Frederic Moss, a former nurse, who told the district attorney he had caused the death of three inmates in relation to the death of Henry Horn, December 20. Blum told the coroner, it was said, that when he took charge of Horn's body he noticed a burn on the mouth and asked Moss about it and that Moss explained it had been made by a cloth saturated with anesthetic tied about the face to hold the mouth shut.

All the eight inmates, Moss said, were put to death and were embalmed before burial, Blum said.

FATHER DIES OF SAME DISEASE AS BABY GIRL

YONKERS, N. Y., Feb. 8.—A few days after the death of his baby from infantile paralysis, a father died of the same disease.

The father, Thomas May, 65, former chief of police here and former district attorney, died at his home in Yonkers, N. Y., after a long illness. He was the father of the baby girl who died of infantile paralysis.

The father's death was a great loss to the family. He was a well-known figure in the community.

HOSPITAL SHIP FOR FISHERMEN

Deep Sea Dangers and America's First Aid

GERTRUDE SEYMOUR

(Exclusive Service The Survey Press Bureau)

The Androscegin, the first American ship especially equipped to carry medical aid to the deep-sea fishermen of the North Atlantic, sailed from the Boston navy yard recently.

It is estimated that there are not less than 6,000 of these fishermen on the vessels engaged in our deep-sea fisheries along the Atlantic coast. The mortality among them from the extraordinary hazards of their calling is higher than among those working in the most dangerous trades ashore.

What this means has been graphically pointed out by Dr. Thomas W. Seymour of the federal public health service, who was the first to propose the hospital ship.

Gloucester's Sea Victims.

Writing in the Survey he said: "Every August a little company of sad-faced men and women and crippled summer boarders gather in Gloucester to face a part in a ceremony such as can be witnessed nowhere else in the United States. Only in the fishing villages of St. Pierre and northern France, as Newfoundland do people come together for the same purpose, for it is the annual memorial service for the deep-sea fishermen who have perished at sea during the year. After children have traced flowers upon the re-timely care to save suffering. Some of them had survived the hardships of terrible days and nights upon their duties only to sustain injury which made the end just as certain, although a little more remote. Many of them died from illnesses which the resources of modern medicine, if they can be applied in time, are quite sufficient to cure."

Besides those who die, many fishermen are badly maimed through infection, wounds which could be treated so successfully, were they received ashore. That only the slightest permanent defects would follow them, fractures which would be mended for no charge, and even severe burns and scalds, and a very different outcome from these, which are promptly cared for, and when a giant sea boarder a little recovered and roars down his length, a broken bone or two is very likely to be included in the wreckage."

Deep-sea fishermen have been exposed year after year to these risks with the added danger which arises from long delays in obtaining medical or surgical relief. Yet, until the proposal of the Androscegin for this purpose, the only means by which a sick or injured fisherman could obtain relief was through the services of the French hospital ship, the Le Comte de Paris, which would pass the Atlantic each summer, and would not be in port in Gloucester until the following September. The Androscegin, however, will be in Gloucester in the summer of 1915.

The Androscegin, in her former career, has figured in many thrilling scenes at sea. She will be remembered best for the dash made in company with the Grosham in 1911 to rescue the fishermen imprisoned in Newfoundland. She has been completely refitted for her new duty and she is provided with every essential for giving efficient medical and surgical treatment at sea. A male graduate nurse will assist Dr. Cox. A comfortable sick-bay, and isolation room with two bunks for cases of contagious disease, tiny operating room and a well-equipped dispensary have been provided.

Wherever the fishermen on the Androscegin is to follow. In winter they are to be found on the banks as far north as Sable Island, in summer they go as far as the Grand Banks or even to the coast of Greenland. The cruising grounds have been determined by a committee of officers and skippers of the fishing fleet who will advise with her commander from time to time. Patients requiring continued treatment will be taken to Halifax, Portland, Gloucester or Boston and for the present Boston will constitute the home port.

Since the urgent need for such a sea-going hospital was pointed out more than seven years ago by the surgeons on duty at the U. S. Marine hospital at Boston, the plan has received the support of many bodies representing maritime, commercial and humanitarian interests and finally, through the aid of Hon. A. P. Gardner, congress was induced to act. The present boat, the Androscegin, was authorized by an act passed last July. Assistant Surgeon of H. Cox of the U. S. public health service will be responsible for the efficiency of the relief work undertaken and Captain W. E. W. Hall of the revenue cutter service will command the vessel.

A POT POURRI OF CURRENT BASEBALL EVENTS BY MENKE

Reulbach's Canning; Herzog's
Scheming; Matty's Arm;
Rudolph's Brain

By FRANK G. MENKE.

KING, Feb. 8.—Reulbach stands out today as a living, breathing example of what may happen to a bunch of organized baseball who look out for their own interests and those of their fellow hirings.

"Big Ed" was teamed by Charles Hercules Ebbetts of Brooklyn. New York, not because he was "through" as a pitcher, but mainly because of these two little things:

(1) As an official of the Baseball Players' fraternity, "Big Ed" had the darndest to bring about better conditions for the players, at the sacrifice of the magnates.

(2) "Big Ed" has had a warm spot in his heart for the Feds, and very frequently told Boss Charles Hercules that he thought the Feds were regular fellows.

Had "Big Ed" kept the peace as far as the Feds were concerned, and had he been less active as a fraternity man, he still would be on the Dodgers' roster. But he didn't, and therefore, Charles Hercules injected the "canning" fluid into Edward and sent him on his way.

The Feds made Reulbach a big offer last winter, but Ebbetts met that offer. Not only did he meet it, but he wanted to hook up Reulbach to a five-year contract. But Reulbach said:

"One year—that's all."

Later Reulbach told us:

"I don't want to hook myself up to Ebbetts for the rest of my days. I want to be a free agent after 1914, so I can deal with whom I please."

Charles Herzog, manager of them there Reds, seems to be set on capturing all the catchers in sight. He landed the flitting Charlie Doon a short time back and lays claim to Ivy Wingo, one time of the Cardinals. The Feds also claim Wingo, but Charles says he has a better claim and that Ivy will cling to him.

In addition to this brace of backstops, Herzog has a Cuban gent named Gonzales, or something like that; the veteran Tom Clarke, and a squad of young fellows who assert that they, too, are catchers.

Herzog probably is loading up on catchers while the loading is good, figuring, probably, that later on he can trade off a pair of them for some pitchers, outfielders, infielders, bat boys and prospective directors for the season.

The arm of Chris Mathewson, in case," remarks one National league ball player. That may be true, but Chris hasn't lost his arm. People around certain parts of the country think there has been something with his arm for the last two or three years. That's an optical illusion.

The old-time power and cunning left Matty's arm a few years ago, and Chris has been pitching with his head ever since in an attempt to keep the Sox, you see, from catching Matty. So, you see, he will be listed among the 1915 Giant pitchers.

Dick Rudolph of the Boston Braves now deserves ranking alongside of Chris Mathewson. He said and other discoveries.

Since the baseball season ended, Dick has been "writing" newspaper articles. Just recently he announced this very important discovery:

"The main asset of a pitcher is control."

STATE TRACK ATHLETES TRAIN FOR INDOOR MEET

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 8.—Track athletes at the University of Colorado began training Saturday in response to Coach Ashmore's call for candidates for the team which will represent the school at the annual indoor track meet to be held in Denver, early in March.

With several old stars back and with a wealth of promising freshmen material, the indoor and outdoor chances to finish on top in the annual track scramble this spring look exceedingly bright.

Among the veterans who will represent the state this season are Clinton Ireland, Clyde and Le Cron, who have established reputations as dash men, farming and high long distance stars. Spring, Powers and Roe, who will toss the weights, and Buckles, whose forte is pole vaulting.

The most promising freshmen are Dick Gorman, Butler, Gray, Knott, and a host of others, who show great promise in the various events.

Coach Ashmore believes that with the above entries of state he will be able to turn out a team which will make a creditable showing in the meet, having lost the state championship.

NEW ATHLETIC EVENT IN BROAD HIGH JUMP

A new athletic event has been devised on the Pacific coast, where the students of several colleges, including the University of California, have introduced broad-high jump. The value for general purposes is that it is the only event in the track and field which can be run in the air and improve the athlete's jumping power. It is a new event, and is being introduced at the University of California, where it is being run for the first time. The event is being run for the first time at the University of California, where it is being run for the first time.

TRANSFER OF TOPEKA CLUB TO SPRINGS STILL "IN AIR" PRESIDENT O'NEIL AND PURCHASER MAY COME HERE SOON

Word From H. H. Meyer, South Dakota Capitalist, Indicates Real Desire to Put Club Here; Kaw Fans Have Until Friday to Pay Off Mortgage; Kansas City, Kan., Wants Team

Upon the ability of Topeka to clear up an indebtedness of $14,000 on its baseball club depends the chances of Colorado Springs to join the Western league, which it left eight years ago. Yesterday Colorado Springs was nearer getting Western league ball than it has been for 10, these many years. What today holds forth is a matter of conjecture, depending largely upon the fans of the Kansas capital. Word was received here yesterday in telegrams from Norris L. O'Neil, president of the Western league, now holding its annual scheduled meeting in Chicago, that, unless matters took on a different color at Topeka, he would be in Colorado Springs within the next few days to investigate the advisability of putting a club here.

Meyer, the Webster, S. D., capitalist, who was mentioned in press dispatches as being a probable purchaser of the franchise to bring it to Colorado Springs, replied, in answer to a telegram, that the plans still are in a formative stage, pending a definite answer from Topeka.

According to the report given out at the Chicago meeting last night, the schedule meeting of the magnates has been postponed, pending settlement of the Topeka matter. A. J. Sayre, secretary of the Kansas City American Association club, has made a bid for the franchise, planning to put the team at Kansas City, Kan., and this matter will be discussed by the magnates today. Kansas City baseball interests are said to be against the plan, owing to the Association and Federal league clubs on the Missouri side.

Topeka has led a sad life in the Western league, and has lost money every year for the last five at least. Plans have been under way for the last two seasons to put the "bad weather" games of the Topeka club in Colorado Springs, but they have fallen through with a disconcerting regularity, as the majority of baseball plans have. Such a threat, however, has been made, and the Topeka club has decided that unless the money is raised by Friday the franchise will be put on the auction block and sold to the highest bidder. In these, the dollars of baseball, it is not expected that there will be a multitude of purchasers.

Meyer is Springs' hope. In H. H. Meyer of Webster, S. D., the honor of his telegrams indicates that he is thoroughly interested in the plan of buying the franchise and putting it right here in our own Colorado Springs. Now, unless some of our associations throw a monkey wrench into the plans, there is a chance for something to happen.

It isn't a question of money at this time. It's simply a question of telling those who would come here to come right along and talk things over, and it is not for any organization to hurt that ever-present question of "How much do you want?" What we want much do you want? What we want much do you want? What we want much do you want?

The first question that is going to be put up to Colorado Springs will be that of grounds, and when it is decided that there will be a chance to "horn in the league," then it will be time to talk over the grounds question. (Continued on page 2)

INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL GAMES TO BE STAGED BY HIGH SCHOOL SATURDAY

Terrors Not to Play; Fast and Furious Fights Predicted, When Classes Clash Together

The high school Terrors will not stage another interclass championship game Saturday night, but instead a series of interclass meets has been arranged by Manager Shoup. They will be played at the Y. M. C. A. The third "fresh" will meet the second year men, while the juniors are scheduled to class with the all-powerful seniors. Fast and furious games are predicted, as the lower forms have a rare opportunity to get even, provided their older classmates have not stronger teams.

The games will begin at 8:15 o'clock and there will be an admission charge of 10 cents to see the fun.

On Friday, February 13, the Terrors probably will meet a team from Brush, Colo., and the following Saturday a delegation from Pueblo is expected. The school is looking to see them make good with a certain to the interclass championship.

MINOR LEAGUE WON'T GET MAJOR RANKING BY LIST OF DRAFTS

Few Players on Small Teams Could Stand Test of Big Games

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The lifting of the draft rule from the American association and "International" league wouldn't make them major league propositions. President Ed Barrows of the International league and the magnates of those organizations may think so but they are practically alone in their belief.

A "major" league is a league made up of top notch ball players. There are very few top notchers in the American association and the International league, certainly not enough to give them a major league ranking. It is a safe wager that not more than five per cent of the players enrolled now in the American association and the International league could stand the major league test.

Take the happenings of the past ten years for an example. Each year the American association and the International league have sent from 10 to 100 players their very best players—up into the majors. Of that number about 85 per cent were chased back each year to the minors.

If only 15 per cent of the very best players that those two leagues produced are of major league caliber, it is a cinch that the percentage of major league players in the American association and International league now averages little more than five per cent. The best players in the American association and the International league during 1914 already have been drafted or sold and those leagues face the 1915 season with nothing but the left overs.

In time those leagues might become pretty well cluttered up with major league players with the draft rule lifted because the American and National leagues could not grab the stars each year. But that condition wouldn't come about for three, four or five years. Even then the American association and International leagues hardly would be able to establish a major league status in the eyes of the baseball public.

To convince that they are major leagues, the team of those two leagues would have to show that they are capable of bearing the teams on the American and National leagues. They might do it if they got a chance. But those chances, looking at things from this angle, are very, very remote.

The magnates of the American and National leagues want to monopolize the major league title. They don't care how many minor leagues there are but they do not want to see any other major league in operation. If the American association and International leagues became major leagues they would act as competitors. It would split the interest of the major league, four ways not including the Feds.

Therefore, it seems fairly certain that the magnates of the American and National leagues would duck any plan that would call for a series of games between their clubs and those of the American association and International league. Such a series would give the American association and International league team a chance for victory. A decisive victory for them would convince the baseball public that those leagues really were major leagues.

If the teams of the American association and the International league never met those of the American and National leagues, there would be no real chance for the fans to "get a line" on the relative powers of the teams. The A. A. and International teams might get up high sounding claims. Their supporters might say they played a better brand of baseball than the teams in the American and National leagues. But that wouldn't convince the major league baseball fan. He wants to be shown. The major league magnates have been forced to a point where the draft rule is actually lifted because of the bitter fight being waged by the Feds. But those major league magnates haven't been forced and won't be forced to play the American association and International league teams a series of games to give those outfits a chance to show whether they can play a better game of baseball than the teams in the American and National leagues.

National League Club Owners Meet Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—When the National league baseball club owners meet here tomorrow to adopt a playing schedule for the coming season they probably will be reading the order named at their December session regarding the player limit of each club to 25 men. Last week the American league at its league meeting did not reduce their maximum of 25 and it is expected that the Nationals will change back to the same number of players.

Another rule, which may be adopted tomorrow is the advisability of making it mandatory on the club not to send their players to spring training south of the Rio Grande. This was recommended at the last annual meeting but since that time several club owners and managers in the National league have declared that a rule to this effect would be too drastic and that the club should be allowed to send their young players into training just as early as they deemed advisable.

CLEASON A STOIC AS HE TAKES LEAVE OF WHITE SOX AFTER MANY YEARS

"Kid" Cleason, of twenty-one years a figure in baseball, takes his release by the White Sox philosophically. "I'm through," he says. "Never will I put on a baseball uniform again. My experience has all been out with the boys on the field, and now that I have reached the parting of the ways, I know when I've had enough. Baseball has changed much in the passing years. We old fellows like to sit back and watch a star, and say, 'Young fellow, how will you take it when the day comes?' I have been expecting my release ever since the clubs decided on curtailing their players to the limit. Twenty-one men the American league will carry this year, and some of them will have a ball player and twenty men. My release is not unexpected. I received a letter from Jimmy Callahan when he was relieved of the club management in which I was told I might expect the ax. Well, I wasn't disappointed. Since the Federal league forgot to fall by the wayside and not play dead both the big leagues have been troubled. The American and National league club owners did not expect the Federal league to continue the fight this year. In fact, they didn't think the 'Feds' would outlast the season of 1914, and when the 'outlaw' continue the warfare the major leagues were more than surprised. It is the Federal league that is causing this policy of retrenchment now. The 'Feds' have put too much money in baseball to quit now, and sooner or later the quit will have to get together. If leagues will have to get together, they don't baseball will be ruined. There isn't room for three major leagues as baseball is conducted today. There isn't as much money in baseball as some people think, but the 'Feds' have some pretty shrewd men in their making."

"I was offered the management of the Brooklyn Federal league club less than one month ago, and declined, because I am not ambitious to manage a baseball team. It isn't much pleasure to manage a baseball team under existing conditions. With a league willing to talk business with the players at any time it is hard to maintain discipline among the players of club in organized baseball, and I imagine it would be just as hard to keep a Federal league club in line. It isn't the easiest thing in the world to get the players to do what you want them to do. As long as conditions remain as they are today, the life of the manager will be anything but a bed of roses. I have been through the mill and know whereof I speak. However, this will have to worry some one else, for I do not intend to bother myself with baseball again."

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS

A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Colorado Springs Reader

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentations make people skeptics. Nowadays the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Colorado Springs reader. Philip Gamble, 119 S. Nevada Ave., Colorado Springs, says: "I was bothered a great deal by backache, especially when I was working as I had to stoop so much. I was so bad that after I had stood for a time I couldn't straighten without a great effort. When I took cold, it settled on my kidneys and caused severe backache. Doan's Kidney Pills, secured at the D. Y. Butcher Drug Co., relieved me as soon as I used them and I have been recommending them ever since. I know that they have great merit." Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Gamble had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

INTERNATIONAL OPERA CO. GIVES FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The entertainment given last evening at the historic theater by the International opera company proved to be one of the best numbers in the Y. M. C. A. Star case. Several hundred people attended the performance and listened to selections from the various operas with pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Russ McKinnis were especially good in their parts. Mr. J. Allen Grubb was credited to sing a solo on account of a severe cold.

U. S. APPEALS IN BEHALF OF GENERAL VILLAREAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Secretary Bryan directed tonight that representations be made at Mexico City in behalf of General Villareal, who is said to have been sentenced to death by General Obregon. Villareal was a member of Carranza's cabinet and after the Aguascalientes convention became a minister of the Gutierrez government. Telegrams appealing to the American government to aid him, reached the state department tonight from prominent business men at New York with whom Villareal dealt when he was on a mission to this country for Carranza.

SONS OF VETERANS MAY GET CLUB UNIFORMS

The Sons of Veterans may adopt a regular uniform for club use. If present plans are carried out, the monthly meeting last night a resolution was passed to write to the department commander at Boulder to get an estimate on the cost, and find out if there was a regulation uniform. There are about 50 members in the organization here. Members of the G. A. R. and other allied orders were present at the meeting, also the Ladies of the G. A. R.

What Paul Wilson Did For His Family

PAUL WILSON was a plain man—just like you and me. He had a wife and a couple of children, and he made four payments of $50 a year for AETNA Accident Insurance. Then Paul Wilson was killed in a train wreck. His policy called for $10,000, but it had increased $1,000 each time he renewed the insurance without increase in the amount paid. And because he was killed while traveling the benefit was doubled. So Mrs. Wilson and the kiddies received $26,000. Be wise—

A PERSONAL STATEMENT—There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much, but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We never offer these imitations and substitutes. We know you will buy Foley's when, ever you need a cough syrup, if you once use it. People come long distances for the true FOLEY'S—over thirty years, the leading remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and grippe coughs. Robinson Drug Co. Adv.

GIRLS TO NURSE BABES AS MOTHERS WORSHIP

COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 8.—Twenty members of the Young Ladies Mission circle of the Tabernacle Christian church here have volunteered as nurses for babies brought to that church during the coming year. The young women say that mothers do not attend church because their babies cry and disturb the services. The young women will take charge of all babies taken to the church and will keep them in a room away from the auditorium, that no disturbance will be caused the minister or the congregation.
